CHAPTER 534

AN ACT to create 85.915 of the statutes, relating to the sentencing of violators of chapter 85 to the compulsory attendance at safety schools in addition to, or in lieu of other penalties provided by law.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

85.915 of the statutes is created to read:

85.915 PENALTY OF COMPULSORY SAFETY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE. In addition to, or in lieu of, the penalties provided by s. 85.91, the trial court may in its judgment of conviction order the person convicted to attend, for a certain number of school days, a traffic safety school, whose course and mode of instruction is approved by the commissioner of the motor vehicle department, conducted by the police department of the municipality, the sheriff's office of the county or by any regularly established safety organization.

Approved July 14, 1953.
